

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BALDWIN COUNTY, AL, November 2, 2021– Baldwin County Commission’s Department of Archives and History is holding the Olde Time Days Festival on Saturday, November 13, 2021 from 9:00AM until 4:00PM at Bicentennial Park, 51233 State Highway 225, Stockton, Alabama 36579. There is no charge for entry, but donations are appreciated. Food will be available to purchase on site.

This event celebrates our community’s agricultural heritage. Visitors can step back in time to the days of plowing and farming demonstrations. Experience plowing, syrup making, peanut threshing, buzzsaw and grist mill demonstrations. There antique tractor parade will begin at noon. Live entertainment by the Chestangs, Unknown Bluegrass, Andy Lolly and the Southern Grass bands.

Stroll through booths of displays. Visit the 19th century blacksmith shop and the military re-enactors camp. Taste food from local vendors. Exciting activities for the kids to enjoy including pony rides, petting zoo, train and hayrides, on-sight entertainment, Kona-Ice, and other children’s games.

For more information about this spectacular event contact the Baldwin County Department of Archives and History at (251) 580-2572.

###